

About the Developer

Since 1990, Atlanta-based McRae & Stolz has been committed to creating communities with the highest standards of quality value and design excellence. The developer team of principals Alan McRae and Will Stolz provides more than 36 years of combined experience in land development, building and management, encompassing nearly every aspect of residential and commercial real estate.

When you choose to live in a McRae & Stolz community, you are choosing a community thoughtfully planned, carefully constructed, and managed with an unyielding commitment to your total living satisfaction. McRae & Stolz boasts an award-winning portfolio of architecturally distinct residential communities and mixed-use commercial projects. Its impressive portfolio consists of properties in Atlanta, North Carolina and Florida, including The Plaza at Berkman Plaza & Marina, Villa San Marco, Brookhaven Registry, Chestalee, Six Hills, Gotting Court, The Clifton, Ravenel and Pinchot.

